

I am against cell phone usage onboard the aircraft during flight as a security issue, terrorists could use the cell equipments to better communicate with each other to do their dastardly deeds and also for cabin environment. We don't need over 100 people yakking at the same time during flights. Thank you!